REV. GEORGE O. BARNES.

STEPS TAKEN FOR HIS RELIEF.
A meeting of a number of the personal friends of Rev. George O. Barnes was held in Stanford on March 1st for the purpose of suggesting to his friends throughout the State a practicable means of relieving him of the weight of an oppressive pecuniary burden. The gentlemen whose names are appended hereeto were designated by the meeting a committee to state, in brief address, to the public, the plan adopted. Mr. Barnes is fast approaching old age. His physical vigor is much impaired. He is poor. A mortgage encumbers his home in Sanibel, Fla. He is in imminent danger of losing his shelter. Will every man and woman who reads or hears of this communication and who believes that he or she has been in any wise instructed or benefited by the gospel he preaches, or who is his personal friend, or who has enjoyed the literature of his sermons, give at least $1 to this end?

If so, the contribution should be sent quickly to J. W. Alcorn and W. G. Welch, Stanford, Ky., who have consented to receive and promptly transmit the amount received.

BOBBITT'S PROCLAMATION

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH.

CRAB CHICKEN, March 2.—Through the INTERIOR JOURNAL which goes everywhere, I desire to say to the gallant people of the South, in case of war with Spain, be a quiet looker-on in Venetia. You were almost exterminated by your own great government, ably by 750,000 foreign troops, in the great Rebellion. You pronounced to the world that you would die in the last ditch. You literally and practically did so. The South is the nursery of bravery and can not afford to sacrifice any more of her gallant sons until some worthless invader attempts to cut a sixty miles swath across her States by the flaming sword of war. The United States have plenty of men to vanquish such a power as Spain. Therefore let the South and Southern men everywhere refrain from any participation in the war, should there be any. It has already been said that Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas would furnish abundant troops for that purpose. Let them do no such thing. You, the people of the South, are of a superior race, first in civilization, in culture and in courage and can not afford to sacrifice your gallant sons, only in repelling an invading foe!

FOSTAINE F. BOBBITT.

The Joshua Simpkins Company was greeted at the opera house last evening by one of the largest audiences seen here during the season. Nearly the whole lower floor was reserved. Such a rush for tickets hasn't been observed in Durham for many a day. The audience went wild over the funny pastoral comedy, "Joshua Simpkins." The play was presented in five acts. "Uncle Josh" was great and so was "Hezekiah Skinner," the tavern keeper, and all the rest of the company. Uncle Josh's saw mill was quite realistic, showing the saw in motion. The musical program by the Simpkins orchestra was exceptionally fine. The renditions were heartily enjoyed. The xylophone solo, "Surf Polka," caught the audience, as did the descriptive fantasia of "Village Life in the Olden Time." The specialties introduced by the company were new and strictly up-to-date. The play was one of the funniest and best introduced here this season. —Durham, N. C. Daily Sun.

DANVILLE.—Mr. E. B. Linney, the new postmaster, takes charge to-morrow. His brother, T. E. Linney, and his son, Herbert, will be associated with him, and the public will not suffer for the least inconvenience by the change. Mr. Mahan has not yet made any arrangements for future business employment. He has made a careful, efficient officer, and leaves a splendid record to his credit.—The chances of a first-class, well equipped ice factory being located in Danville this Spring are very rosy. —Advocate.

The total number of copies of newspapers printed throughout the world in one year is 12,000,000,000. To print these requires 781,216 tons of paper, or 1,562,480,000 pounds, while it would take the fastest single press 333 years to print a single year's edition, which would produce a stack of papers nearly 50 miles high.

A figure finds that at the present rate of increase there will be standing room only on the earth at 1 P. M., February 27, in the year 3118, just 1,250 years from now.

Mrs. Celia Wallace, of Chicago, has paid $21,000 for the second largest diamond in the United States.

Seventy horses started in the races at New Orleans Tuesday.

A New York firm now manufactures paper matches.

LANCASTER, GARRARD CO.

Gillley & Burton bought 140 hogs at 3 to 3½.

Mr. Jacob Joseph has gone to Cincinnati to buy spring goats. Mr. T. B. Robinson has returned from Frankfort, where he has been mixing with the Saloons.

Over 250 tickets have been sold to the old bachelor's convention on Friday night and the house will be packed. The boys are going about it in earnest and, as a mirth producer and a fun provider, it will be a great success.

W. T. West will move the post-office to Gov. Bradley's vacant store-room on Lexington Avenue. Mrs. West will act as deputy for awhile, after which he will take young Louis West, a nephew of his, who is bright and intelligent.

Mr. D. M. Lackey has an oak walking cane, which was bought on the field of Gettysburg by his son, Theodore Lackey. It has a heavy ball imbedded and a view of Gen. Meade's headquarters. Mr. Lackey places a high estimate on it.

The suit for $20,000 damages against the Turners, for killing Marlon Sebastian, has been satisfactorily adjusted by compromise, so Attorney J. Mort Rothwell reports. The cases in Judge Barnside's court against James Johnson and Charles Simpson were passed until Saturday.

There is some opposition to the general election bill in this section, but the democrats who thought that it gave too much power to a few men and might react on the party, will submit to it as a party measure and, if it becomes a law, hope that it will operate in an acceptable manner.

Mr. J. C. Thompson started out to raise a company of home guards to act, in case Kentucky should be invaded by the Spaniards. He says that enough to make a brigade have already offered to enlist. All the preachers, lawyers, doctors, merchants and every man, who is worth over $2,500, has enlisted. This leaves a large majority to be enrolled for active service.

Mrs. Adeline widow of Gen. W. J. Landrum, and Miss Margaret Mason are on the sick list, but it is hoped that they will soon recover. Mr. James Taylor is very sick of pneumonia. Mr. R. E. McRoberts is confined to his bed and is suffering of meningitis. Mr. J. Hatchett's home has been converted into a hospital, all four of his children being sick, but not seriously.

In addition to the court day report sent in by the business manager, Mr. E. C. Walton, and which was published on Tuesday, I note that Mr. B. G. Fox, of Danville, bought four horses at $65 to $100. Business was good and the crowd orderly. Among the many visitors from Stanford to our city on Monday was Mr. W. H. Duderler, who was welcomed by many friends who had not seen him here for many years.

The K. P. Uniform Rank of Myrtle Division, No. 24, 1st Regiment, was installed on Wednesday night by Maj. R. H. Tomlinson, of that regiment. E. D. Bishop is captain; L. L. Walker, 1st Lieutenant; G. B. Swinebroad, 2d Lieutenant; James Dillon, 3d Lieutenant; Joe E. Robinson, Sentinel, and Dr. W. S. Benzley, Recorder. They will attend the grand conclave at Indianapolis next August. I understand that this division is willing to take part in a war with Spain, provided they can sail in the Kentucky, ironclad with or without liquor, if there is plenty aboard when they sail.

The number of bills introduced and the amount of work mapped out by the Legislature reminds me of the dump snow which can be rolled into a huge mass by the small boy and which will melt away in less time than it took to roll it together. If Gov. Headley's veto holds its edge, there will be few laws left as a monument to the memory of that intelligent body. They had better pass a law abolishing the veto power, except where proposed laws are unconstitutional and can not be enforced. The veto power is especially dangerous where a party measure, contrary to the views of the executive, is proposed as a law.

John Brown, a tenant on W. S. Galley's plantation near Livingston, Ala., locked his five children in the house and with his wife went to church. When they returned the house was in ashes and five charred corpses were found in the debris.

MIDDLEBURY, CASEY CO.

Eld. J. M. Sliner held a meeting at Poplar Grove, in which there were 15 additions.

Nathan Hicks has rented the Russell farm, two miles above town, for the present year.

A little daughter of James Hamilton, on Knob Creek, died Saturday night with epileptic fits.

The setting of a German colony at Grove seems to have been more talk than business. We hear nothing of it now.

There was a new arrival at the home of Milford Delk Saturday night in the shape of a little dish washer. Milford is said to be somewhat disappointed as he was expecting a pink boy.

George Sims, who has just attained his majority, and Miss Clancy Hatter, daughter of Nieh. Hatter, were married Sunday by Esq. J. A. Wall. The writer met the bridal party as we were returning from Mt. Olive Sunday evening, and a happier looking couple it has never been our lot to see.

Rumors of mad dogs are current here at this time. A dog belonging to Mr. B. M. Edwards, of the Indian creek section, bit McD. Jones on the hand but Mr. Jones thought nothing of it at the time, but the dog disappeared in a few hours and Mack became alarmed and went to McKinney and had Mrs. Duderler apply her madstone, which adhered at once to the wound and Mack is thoroughly convinced now that the dog had hydrocephalus.

Coleman Durban died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Marshall Brown, near Mt. Olive Saturday last, after an illness of only a few days. Deceased was 75 years old and had spent most of his life in the house where he died. He had been a member of the Christian church at Mt. Olive for 54 years and had served the church as elder and superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years. He was much respected by his neighbors and had few, if any, enemies. Uncle Coleman, as he was affectionately called by everybody, was a particular friend of the writer and we recall many acts of kindness shown us by him in days gone by. His doors were ever open to us and we always met a cordial welcome on entering. His children and grandchildren have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. After a short, but appropriate discourse at the church by Rev. Gillum, the remains were followed by a large concourse of people and laid to rest in the family burying ground on the farm of his son, J. J. Durban. A good man, a kind neighbor and a loving father has gone to his reward.

MT. VERNON.

There is very little excitement here over the war cloud that hovers over us.

Another surgical operation was performed on Mr. C. L. King and his chances for recovery are better.

There is much talk about the smallpox but no cases are reported here yet. All tramps are hustened on their journey by our watchful town marshal, W. H. McClure.

We have it from good authority that Mr. R. C. Ford, of Middleboro, will be a candidate for State treasurer again and this time he will go in without a doubt. Mr. Ford is a true gentleman, an expert financier and will fill the office most creditably.

Two tramps were halted here last week and one sent to Hotel Griffin and from thence hospitably entertained on the rock pile, but when he carelessly mentioned that he was just from the small-pox region he was quickly furnished with a tie ticket. We presume they next visited Stanford from the 1. J.'s account of Marshal Newland's reception of two of their unfortunate class.

Six of the pupils of Mrs. Nesbitt's school will participate in a silver medal contest this evening. This makes the tenth silver medal contest that Mrs. Nesbitt has conducted in this county within about a year. The second gold medal contest will follow soon.

If all worked as earnestly for temperance and the up building of character among the young as the ladies of the W. C. T. U., this county would soon be a paradise. The selfish ambition and avarice of man throw obstacle that seem insurmountable at times in the way, but we ever remember that God omnipotent reigneth.

Mrs. C. L. King has been very ill. Mr. Wm. Newcomb has taken a partnership in King & Co's. rock quarry. Young Mr. John Colyer is quite ill with fever. The portrait of Judge Morrow that ornaments the court room is an excellent likeness of our worthy champion of justice. Mr. Hugh Miller is the happy father of a new daughter, Jennie Morrow. Miss Phoebe Sparks came up from Livingston Monday. Mrs. Arthur Scott will visit relatives in Alabama soon. Mr. W. A. Morrow attended court here. Misses Mattie and Lena Newcomb and Mrs. Georgie Collier visited Miss Carrie Lair last week. Mrs. S. H. Martin was in town Saturday. Mr. John Mullins, of Livingston, was here recently.

Judge Sullivan, of Madison, refused liquor license to applicants seeking to open saloons at cross road points and the wet element is up in arms.

If Joshua Simpkins doesn't have a crowd at Lawrenceburg it will not be because the News has not boomed him. It has printed over a column of matter about him and his company for the last several issues. Space must be of little consequence to the editor.

The Courier-Journal says representatives of all classes of L. & N. employees held a secret meeting at Library Hall. From a significant interview secured from one of the delegates, it is believed a restoration of the 10 per cent cut is to be demanded, and there are hints of trouble if the demand is refused.

C. H. Haverly, a postal clerk running between Cincinnati and Chattanooga on the Cincinnati Southern, broke the record for the United States Monday in throwing cards during a railway mail service examination. Haverly, at one sitting of six hours and 22 minutes, threw 10,295 cards. These cards represented all the post-offices in the States of Kentucky, Georgia, Tennessee and Indiana, and shows that the thrower has a knowledge of their location. His percentage of correct throws was 99.22.

Prof. J. B. Skinner, president of Hamilton Female College, died Monday of heart trouble and rheumatism, aged 59 years. He was raised in Lincoln county and graduated at the Virginia University. For several years he taught at various schools in other States, coming to Kentucky in 1888 and taking charge of Garrard College. Next year he went to Hamilton and has been its president ever since. He married Miss Julia Lenoir, who was a granddaughter of the president of the late Bacon College at Harrodsburg. She and five children survive him, besides four brothers, including David Skinner, of this county. Mrs. Skinner will preside over the college the rest of the session.

STANFORD, KY., - MAR. 4, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

The local papers tell of the horrible torture that the fiendish Mayfield mob inflicted on the Negro they hung for stealing. The first time he was strung up they failed to tie his hands and he caught the rope as he dropped. Half choked he begged for mercy and water and was finally cut down. The brutes then tied his hands, but did not do it securely and the result of the next effort to kill him was as before. Weak and fainting from the terrible torture, he was a third time drawn up and allowed to slowly choke to death. The Mirror says the mob was composed of irresponsible boys and green countrymen, which would indicate that the identity of some of the number is known, and on them the severest punishment should be meted. There was no excuse for the murder. The Negro was in jail and likely to receive a full sentence, so the act was purely to gratify a cowardly thirst for blood, and to vent a cruel desire. This is the second lynching in Mayfield in a few months, besides other exhibitions of lawlessness, the which if not checked, will make the place a hell and a by-word for everything opposed to law and order. The citizens owe it to themselves to assist the courts in ferreting out the brutes and seeing that they are punished to the full extent.

Gov. BRADLEY is wielding his veto ax with vigor and effectiveness. What he did to the iniquitous McChord bill, authorizing the railroad commissioners to fix rates, was a plenty. He shows that the bill is unconstitutional for several reasons, the main being that it confers judicial power on the commissioners and gives them the power to deprive persons of property rights without due process of law. It is said that the bill will be passed over the veto, but it is hoped that the governor's strong arguments against it will bring some of the legislators to their senses. The second veto was that of the prison bill, which he claims is unconstitutional because it makes the legislative invade the executive department, besides opens the way to pernicious partisanship. The present management of the prisons is such that any change would be an improvement and for this reason the bill has many friends, who should like to see it become a law.

We are in receipt of the Southern Journal of Osteopathy, published by the Infirmary at Franklin, for that particular method of treating diseases, which is both handsome and interesting to those who wish to know more of the new method of cure, without drug or knife. It is done by scientific manipulation and as such men as Ex-Congressman Goodnight and others as prominent testify to wonderful cures by it, there must be real good in it. The founders want it distinctly understood that Osteopathy is neither faith cure, hypnotism, animal magnetism, nor massage. It is simply manipulation by men who know the human system and how to remove the obstruction causing the trouble.

The war department has decided to abandon the Alaska relief expedition, and the supplies, including reindeer, are to be disposed of. As a ship load of the latter have just arrived, 537 in number, from Norway, now is a chance to get a reindeer cheap. A long felt want might also be filled in the purchase of reindeer harness, of which 500 sets are to be sold. Don't everybody bid at once.

The necessity for such a radical measure as the Goebel election bill does not seem to exist, even if principles were left out of consideration. The republican is a minority party in this State and will always be. If democrats by partisanship do not drive conservative men from them with measures that over-ride the principles that they have always loved the democratic party for.

There is a Pigg in Madison county that can never be called a hog, if outside appearances go for anything. He has presented the county with his entire turnpike, which is clever even if by so doing he gets an elephant off his hands. The Pigg's name is W. W. and we gladly assist in helping send it echoing down the corridors of time.

SAM JONES has withdrawn from the gubernatorial race in Georgia, leaving the public to wonder if it is so soon done for, what was it begun for. Most likely it was for advertising, of which Samuel is very fond.

DR. MARY WALKER has made application in due form at Washington to join the Daughters of the Revolution, but there are doubts as to her eligibility. Some people think she is a man.

The effort to make the McChord railroad bill a party measure is ridiculous. It is just such foolish attempts that bring caucuses into disrepute and leave democrats to do as they please in the premises.

There now seems no doubt that the mine was blown up by a floating submarine mine, fired from the shore, divers all testifying that the hull was blown inward instead of outward as it would have been had the explosion been from within as the Spanish claim. Opinions agree, not only as to the existence of mines in the harbor, but also that this one was laid purposefully near the buoy, where foreign war vessels were directed to moor, and was fired from an electric battery on shore. It is believed barely possible that the explosion of the mine was the result of the carelessness or ignorance of Spanish officers in charge of the mine station keys when testing the circuit, but the latter supposition is not felt to be probable. In any event Spain is likely to be held responsible and in case of war it is said that she can not rely on the assistance of any other European power. The American war ships are being concentrated so as to be able to strike effectively if war alone must wipe out the dastardly outrage.

The Winchester Democrat makes amends for printing our patrmonymic incorrectly, by appropriating our editorials without credit, thereby showing that it appreciates and approves our work if it does not know our name.

We are frequently asked why the Maine was sent to Havana, but as President McKinley and perhaps God Almighty only knew, we have to remain silent.

MRS. WATTERSON goes after Urey Woodson in yesterday's Courier-Journal in a way he must despise.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Orr leaf tobacco bill was killed in the Senate.

The House passed a bill to make railroads let the postal telegraph place poles along their line.

A mass meeting of democrats and populists endorsed the Goebel elections measure at Hopkinsville.

A mass meeting at Owenton denounced the force bill and approved Representative Orr's course by a vote of 50 to 4.

Senator Bronston tried to have his vetoed prisons bill acted upon at once, but failing, had it made a special order for Saturday.

The proposed constitutional amendment to require the payment of poll tax before voting failed to receive a two-thirds vote in the Senate, 51 to 49 in motion to reconsider was adopted.

When the motion was made to take up the McChord bill veto, Gov. Worthinton decided it out of order and his decision was sustained 19 to 1, which is first blood for the opponents of the bill.

The gerrymander of the 3rd Congressional district makes it reliably democratic, even if Hunter and his methods prevailed. The governor may veto the bill, however, which is now in his hands.

A large majority of our people who have read the Goebel election law are against it. A few are for it, including County Chairman J. E. Carson, who says he can see no objection to it, except that it creates too many offices.

The liquor men received a black eye at Frankfort when the House refused, by a vote of 46 to 10, to take the Local Option Bill out of the hands of the Committee on religion and Morals, which is composed largely of preachers.

That Kentucky statesman who wants to have the name of Carlisle county changed to William Jennings Bryan county, should not forget that there are great Kentuckians worthy to be put upon the map. There ought to be a Joe Blackburn county, a H. C. Lung county, a Jack Chinn county and a Sulphur Creek county. As for P. W. Hardin, his name ought to be given to the State.—New York Sun.

FINDING that there is no money in the business, John Traylor, the distiller, has decided to sell no more whisky except at wholesale. His license, he says, costs him over $100 and he hardly ever sells over 10 barrels a year.

THE Joshua Simpkins Co., which will arrive Sunday in its own handsome speckled car, is a large and from all reports an excellent one. It carries two bands and gives a most amusing and novel street parade. Come in Monday and see it and you will be sure to remain to the show that night. Reserved now on sale at W. B. McRoberts' store.

NO SMALL-POX THERE.—The report that there is small-pox at Rowland was started by a smart Meek who ought to be confined in the house for incurable sores for life. This is no time for such fool jokes. It is further learned that the Negro, Henry Logan, who, it was claimed, brought the disease there, was here yesterday and produced a health certificate.

THAT MORTGAGE—We answer numerous inquiries when we say that the mortgage on Rev. George O. Barnes Sanibel Island farm is $2,000. Friends in several towns have accepted the suggestion of this paper and are raising funds to lift it. Meantime anyone, who wants to help the good cause can do it to the committee whose names are given on our first page for prompt remittance to the end desired.

"How do you stand on the Gaebel election bill?" was asked Judge R. J. Breckinridge, of Danville. "If it is passed, I'm for it," he said with a smile. "As an original proposition, what do you think of it?" "Not much. It is too great a change, but I do not think the dreadful results will follow that are predicted." The judge is a leading silver democrat and a party man, who believes that when the party runs in convention or caucus its work should be accepted.

THE small pox situation at Middlesboro is more and more alarming. Fifteen new cases were discovered Wednesday, and Dr. Samuel Blair, who has been in charge of the epidemic, has telegraphed for the presence of all the members of the State Board of Health. Over 600 persons were vaccinated in 24 hours, many of the negroes being forced to submit to the pistol's point. It is said that the L. & N. authorities will permit no persons east of Corbin to buy tickets, who can not produce proof of vaccination and freedom from infection.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. W. P. Tate on Saturday, the 5th, at 1:30 P. M. Each member is not only invited, but requested to be present. New members who want to work for the Master will be gladly welcomed. Come and help us to greet our new pastor with this department of church work strongly enforced and ready to lend a helping hand. It is more important than a war of retribution with Spain, for we fight under a Captain whose watchword is love and who fights to save, not to destroy. Come and help us to extend our influence even beyond the seas to starving India and suffering Cuba. Come, there is strength in union; come, let our battle cry ring out loud and long for Christ, His church, victory and Heaven.

HAVE your clothes cleaned, altered and repaired by Middleton & Co., under the St. Asaph Hotel.

IT only costs 25 cents to be vaccinated in Danville, while our doctors charge $1. That's what our people get by the doctors' trust.

MAD DOG BITE.—Doe Padgett, of the Kingsville section, was bitten by a dog which has since proven to be mad and he is very naturally scared about it. He had Mrs. Anne Dudderar, of McKinney, to apply her famous madstone, but it did not adhere. The dog bit several other dogs which have gone mad and the neighborhood is considerably worked up. A war on dogs will likely be the result.

SAD DEATH.—Mrs. Sallie I. Nevius, wife of Joseph E. Nevius, of whose illness of peritonitis, we told in our last issue, died while it was being printed, aged 25, leaving two little children, one but 12 days old. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Traylor and a little over two years ago, became the wife of the man, who feels her loss as no other can. Mrs. Nevius was a woman of splendid physique and being the picture of health, a long life seemed to await her, but death has claimed her in the hey day of youth and taken her when she had more than ever to live for. She was a member of the Christian church for more than 10 years and death did not find her unprepared for the change. The funeral was held at the Goshen church Tuesday afternoon, with services by Rev. J. B. Crouch, of the Baptist church, and then the young wife and mother was laid forever from mortal sight. In the presence of many sorrowing friends.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The trial of Ben Kennedy for shooting Jos. H. White, which was on when we went to press Monday, resulted in a verdict of a fine of $220 and costs, the latter amounting to over $90. The men are brothers-in-law, Kennedy having married a sister of White. The trouble grew over family affairs and the consequences have been terrible. White has lost the use of his arm for the most part on account of the bone being shattered by the ball of the 44 pistol, while Kennedy carries a wound in his head of which he will never recover. Nor is this all, it was shown in the trial that to relieve his constant pain he resorted to morphine and now is a confirmed user of the horrible drug. He is a son of Mr. Grove Kennedy, who has had troubles enough to drive an ordinary man crazy.

W. H. Traylor was fined $25 each in fine cases for selling liquor unlawfully and three were dismissed.

R. C. Wurren and J. B. Paxton were appointed to examine J. R. Bush, who is an applicant for law license.

B. F. Ferrell was fined $5 for assaulting Harry Simpson. Grounds for a new trial were filed.

Mrs. Ollie Hunt was granted a divorce from Forrest Hunt and restored to her maiden name of Stevens.

Hon. Pontius Fox Bobbitt is a many sided man. He prosecuted Rice Benge for shooting W. R. Smith when he persisted in coming to see his sister-in-law, and had blunten on. Wednesday he defended Benge, explaining his anomalous position and by an eloquent appeal cleared him up.

The second case against Ben Kennedy for malicious wounding and shooting is set for next Tuesday. It occurred at the same time that the other took place and was at Will White. A change of venue will probably be asked for.

Deputy Sheriff J. C. Lynn was fined $5 for failure to keep order. Jess is a good kind of fellow and doesn't want to hurt any man's feelings by ordering him to keep quiet, so instead of "order, gentlemen" in stentorian tones, he went and whispered to some men who were talking that it was against rules to do so, soliloquy. It was then the judge lined him, when Jess drew himself up to his long, full length and shouted: "Gentlemen, you must keep order, you see what it is costing me?" This happy little sally will doubtless cause the fine to be remitted.

THE Rev. Ransom Martin died in Christian county at the age of 90 years. Since 1891, there has been a gradual decrease of growth of the Methodist Episcopal Church North.

Since the 50th anniversary of his coronation as priest, Pope Leo has received in gifts $25,250,000, mostly in money.

L. S. Wilson, who was fined $50 and given a sentence of 10 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons, in a lower court, appealed and presenting a pardon from the governor for the imprisonment part, was fined $30. In the breach of the peace he was let off with the costs. Wilson is the reservoar foreman on the C. S. at Moreland.

T. L. Shetton was fined $25 for selling liquor unlawfully.

Martin McCormack, the blind Negro pensioner, who gets $72 a month, is doing his part towards helping the Commonwealth in times. He was given 10 days in jail and fined $30 for carrying a pistol concealed.

John Groep was let off with the costs for assaulting David Levin.

James Kennedy, for breach of the peace was acquitted yesterday.

C. L. Crow sued his brother, R. H. Crow, for 90 dollars for breaking horses for him, but the defendant proved that he had paid Jas. P. Crow for whom the plaintiff was working, and the jury found for him.

James Cash, who forged the name of A. C. Martin to a check for $55, confessed and got one year.

The trial of David Guest for shooting Bill Tucker, another Negro at Crab Orchard, is set for next Monday.

Only four indictments and those against persons in jail, have been returned by the grand jury.

SINCE getting out of the livery business Mr. M. S. Baughman is devoting his attention to the raising of fine chickens. He received from Hardlossburg Wednesday some Cornish Indian Game, which are pronounced by judges to be the finest ever brought to this section.

SMALL-POX.—The Local Board of Health of Lincoln County, composed of Drs. Steele Bailey, J. F. Peyton and J. G. Carpenter, held a meeting in the office of Dr. Steele Bailey to company with Mayor J. N. Menefee and Judge James P. Bailey Wednesday and decided that the conditions called for prompt and immediate work to prevent the spread of small-pox. Dr. Bailey was appointed health officer for the county, who will co-operate with Judge Bailey in seeing after present vaccination. The Statutes give them the power to force all persons, who have not recently been vaccinated, to do so at once, under penalty of a fine of $10 to $100 for each day they fail to obey orders. It is the duty of all physicians to report suspected cases to the health officer who can use force, if necessary, to make personal inspection. Parents and guardians are responsible for the vaccination of their children over 12 months old and they will be held to the letter of the law. In case of liability of the person to be vaccinated to pay for it, the county court is authorized to pay at the rate of 25 cents each for the work. Let all persons attend to the important matter of vaccination at once and thereby put themselves out of danger for the loathsome disease.

CHURCH CHATTER.—The Rev. Ransom Martin died in Christian county at the age of 90 years. Since 1891, there has been a gradual decrease of growth of the Methodist Episcopal Church North.

Since the 50th anniversary of his coronation as priest, Pope Leo has received in gifts $25,250,000, mostly in money.

Bergen, Norway, boasts a paper church large enough to seat 1,000 persons. The building is rendered waterproof by a solution of quicklime, encrusted milk and white eggs.
